COST participated in the 3rd EuCheMS Chemistry Congress in Nürnberg

COST participated in the 3rd EuCheMS Chemistry Congress in Nürnberg which presented the latest research in the core topic areas of chemistry, featured multidisciplinary programming, and highlighted chemistry's impact on society. The Congress brought together chemical and molecular scientists from industry, academia and government institutions across Europe and from around the world. The vendor exhibition included leading companies showing their latest innovations in chemistry and related fields. This Congress was organised under the auspices of the EuCheMS, the European Association for Chemical and Molecular Sciences.
