

Newsletter

October 2017

COST highlights

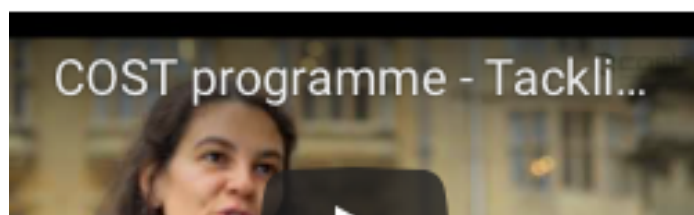

COST Committee of Senior Officials meet in Tartu, Estonia

COST Targeted Network BESTPRAC presents four-year outcomes

COST in Montenegro to encourage greater participation in COST Actions

Science & technology focus

COST Programme - tackling cancer research together

Upcoming events

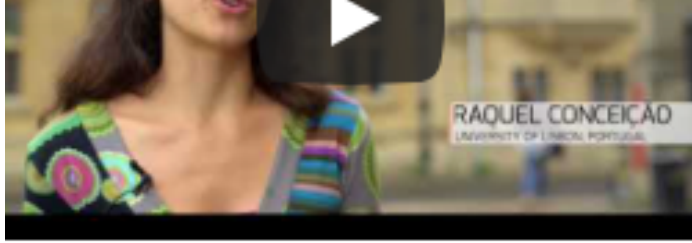

IMAGING IN NEUROMUSCULAR DISEASE 2017

19-21 NOVEMBER 2017 | BERLIN, GERMANY

COST Action MYO-MRI's final conference is also the first international one in the field, gathering clinical neuromuscular experts, radiologists, physicists and computer vision specialists discussing muscular magnetic resonance as a tool for diagnosing neuromuscular diseases.

COST CONNECT: THE RELEVANCE OF IMPACT IN R&I POLICY – WHAT ROLE FOR NETWORKS?

24 NOVEMBER 2017 | BRUSSELS, BELGIUM

Novel tools to improve plant production could boost food security

Europe finding common cause over conspiracy theories

This COST Connect event will be an open space for participants to discuss the role that impact criteria should play in future research and innovation policies and how the effects of networking can be adequately included. The event offers an interactive forum to several COST Actions (both working on horizontal and thematic research topics) and stakeholders active in the EU's R&I field.

SELF-HEALING CONCRETE: THE PATH TO SUSTAINABLE CONSTRUCTION

23-25 JANUARY 2018 | LISBON, PORTUGAL

Register your attendance before the 30th November to attend the 1st SARCOS Training School on self-healing concrete: The path to sustainable construction.

In brief

COST Action, The EU Aquaponics Hub is featured on the BBC World Service

The European Commission has launched the fifth edition of the EU Prize for Women Innovators

New observatory now open at Liverpool's FACT-reimagining how we measure, predict and sense the world today

Apply now: call for short-term scientific missions within COST Action CA15202: Self-healing concrete: The path to sustainable construction.

View all of our upcoming events

You are receiving this email because you opted in on our website or as a result of your link to a COST event or activity.

If you wish to unsubscribe, please click here.