

If already

Every month Facebook gets 40 times more visitors than the Czech Republic does in a year (276 million)

33% of all music sold in 2008 was in digital format

The amount of technical information has been doubling every 2 years since 2000...

Then how far will the digital revolution go?

Meet the people who are working to establish reliable scenarios for the next 20 years
