

COST News - July 2015

COST Highlights

Open Call fall 2015 collection date set for 8 September
INFOGRAPHIC

COST Scientific Committee getting started

Science & Technology Focus

Taking charge of air quality control in Europe's smart, green cities

Prof. Teresa Puig on women in physics

COST Events

Inclusiveness Target Country roadshow:
COST goes local

COST has been going local to encourage scientists, engineers and scholars to set up and take part in running COST Actions.

EuroNanoForum 2015 highlights

Five of our COST Actions on new materials and nanotechnologies presented their work at a workshop on funding instruments.

VIDEO: EuCNC 2015 - why researchers should network

When Research meets Art

COST was part of the event organised within the 2015 Avignon festival.

Info Day in Skopje: Macedonian participation doubles over the past five years

WIRE 2015 - the ideal setting for the COST Excellence and Inclusiveness policy

In Brief

A COST Action develops a course for teenagers on the pros and cons of biological control over ragweed – a hayfever and asthma trigger

COST Actions FAProteomics, DairyCare and RGB-Net publish joint paper on bitter taste in ruminants