LEADERSHIP POSITIONS IN COST ACTIONS

A CLOSE LOOK AT LEADERSHIP POSITIONS

■ Women ■ Men /// Younger researchers

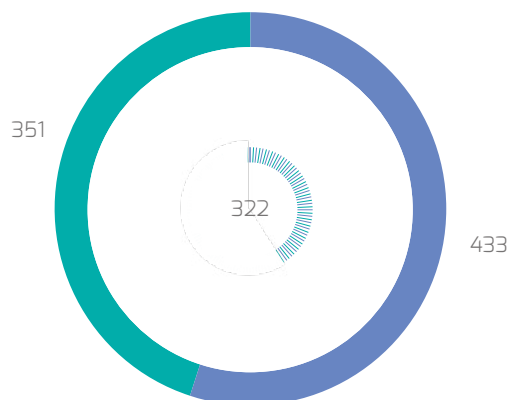

“It was a great opportunity to join as a coproposer in 2015 at my first COST Action. Now I participate in three of them and it really gave a boost to my career. I met many researchers in my area and I started the best possible collaborative projects, as for example NanoRound (that is a benchmark study in nanofluids numerical approach).”

Prof. Alina Adriana Minea, Department of Technologies and Equipments for Materials Processing, Technical University Gheorghe Asachi, Iasi

“The funding tools provided to young researchers for different activities (short-term scientific missions, training schools, conference grants) are extremely useful for participants from countries like Romania, where research funds for young researchers are very limited.”

Dr Anca Nemuc, Senior Researcher,
National Institute of R&D for Optoelectronics
