Q&A with Mariona Miret, Occitan language activist

<https://rising.globalvoices.org/blog/2022/09/20/qa-with-mariona-miret-occitan-language-activist/>

The Holy Grail for our scientific community is to unlock scientific information and provide everyone with the skills to be able to interact with our vast distributed knowledge base. The COST Action MOBILISE enabled more institutions to participate, and this capacity building was as important for some smaller institutions in Western Europe as it was for widening country partners from Eastern and Southern Europe.
